The World's Ultimate City Escapes

In a special annual issue of Luxury Hotels, Robb Report editors have selected the world's most exclusive luxury hotels.

"The publication of Robb Report Luxury Hotels culminates a yearlong effort by our editorial staff members, who identified the best properties in each of nearly 100 cities worldwide," explains Editor Bruce Wallin.

Spanning 42 countries on six continents, the collection of exclusive properties showcased in Robb Report Luxury Hotels ranges from historic grand dames in Europe to contemporary boutique hotels in Asia. But each hotel, according to Mr Wallin, shares at least one common trait, the ability to convey the absolute best of its respective city.

"In selecting only one property for a given city, the editorial staff focused on determining "which property represented the ultimate address for the luxury traveler," according to Mr Wallin.

"In addition to exceptional locations, these hotels have staff that are not only highly focused on guest service, but are also thoroughly knowledgeable about everything that makes their city great," Mr, Wallin says. "First-rate accommodation, amenities and facilities are a given."
